

Andrew Wall

SVP, Chief Commercial Officer | PowerSecure

As a member of the executive management team, Wall is responsible for leading the commercial organization to achieve sustained, profitable growth. In this role, he leads strategic growth development and execution, corporate development, sales and marketing performance and ensures the delivery of a world-class customer experience.

Before joining PowerSecure, Wall was senior vice president and chief commercial officer at NN, Inc., a diversified industrial company that designs and manufactures high-precision components for global markets using advanced engineering and materials science.

Prior to joining the NN, Inc., Wall served in numerous leadership positions for ABB, a global manufacturer of heavy electrical equipment and automation technology, with roles spanning corporate strategy, business development, marketing, sales and business unit general management over an 18-year tenure.

Wall serves on the board of directors for the Research Triangle Cleantech Cluster, an industry-funded organization focused on accelerating the growth of the cleantech economy. This organization leverages the unique concentration of industry, academic and government leaders in North Carolina's Research Triangle to create benefits through innovation, deployment and talent.

Wall holds a Bachelor of Science in business management from North Carolina State University and a Master of Business Administration from Elon University.
